Dear Shri W.M.S. Pariat,

Greetings to you from the Foundation!

The Jamnalal Bajaj Foundation over a span of 35 years has been respected as a Gandhian establishment in areas of developing the socio economic arena in our country. It strives to serve the ideals of Shri Jamnalal Bajaj and promotes Gandhian constructive activities in India and abroad. Shri Jamnalal Bajaj was accepted by Mahatma Gandhi as his fifth son and was the alter ego of the Mahatma so far as the Gandhian Constructive Movement was concerned.

The Foundation has instituted four awards which are given annually to recognize, honor and encourage the outstanding contribution of the selfless people towards the upliftment and development of the society, rural community and the nation, at large. There are three National Awards and one International Award as listed below:

1. National: Outstanding Contribution in the field of Constructive Work in Rural India
2. National: Application of Science and Technology for Rural Development.
3. National: Development and Welfare of Women and Children (instituted in the memory of Padma Vibhushan Smt. Jankidevi Bajaj, wife of Shri Jamnalal Bajaj)
4. International: International Award for Promoting Gandhian Values Outside India (presented to an individual holding a foreign passport and nationality).

We are inviting nominations for the 2014 awards. I enclose a brochure presenting more details of the Awards and their objectives, for your information.

In over three decades, the nominations received from very distinguished and dedicated workers have been encouraging. I would appreciate if you could kindly help us by utilizing your good offices for disseminating the information of the Awards and sending us your recommendations of nominees residing and working in your State or elsewhere.

Dear Friend,

JAMNALAL BAJAJ AWARDS, 2014

We are sending herewith a brochure giving details of the four Jamnalal Bajaj Awards :

1. Award for Constructive Work.
2. Award for Application of Science and Technology for Rural Development.
3. Award for Development and Welfare of Women and Children (Instituted in memory of Smt. Jankidevi Bajaj).
4. International Award for promoting Gandhian Values outside India.

We shall be grateful if you could find time to go through the brochure and recommend nominees who, in your opinion deserve to be considered for any of the four Awards for the year 2014.

These recommendations should be on the lines of the 'Nomination Format' appearing in the enclosed brochure for each Award.

The nomination/s can be sent either in English or Hindi.

We would like to mention that it may not be possible for us to return any material you might send along with your nomination/s.

Individuals nominated earlier are also eligible for consideration for the Awards for the year 2014 if they are nominated again on the basis of the 'Nomination Format'. Self-nominations will not be entertained.

Nominations recommended by relatives and/or by the office bearers/members of the organisation of the nominee will be considered.

Kindly note the last date for receipt of nominations is 15th January, 2014 for the 3 National Awards and 28th February, 2014 for the International Award.

We look forward to receiving your nomination/s on the lines indicated above as early as possible.

Yours sincerely,

Minal Bajaj

Jamnalal Bajaj

The late Shri Jamnalal Bajaj was a close associate of Mahatma Gandhi. Gandhi called Jamnalal his 'fifth son'. Jamnalal took active part in the freedom struggle and courted arrest on several occasions. However, constructive work was his main forte. He devoted himself to almost all activities included in the Constructive Programme propounded by Gandhi. Special mention must be made of Jamnalal's pioneering efforts in the fields of Go Seva (Cow protection), development of Dalits, propagation of Hindi, spread of Khadi and development of village industries.

Jamnalal Bajaj Foundation

The Foundation was established in 1977 in memory of Jamnalal Bajaj with the object of serving the ideals for which he had dedicated his life and helping to promote the kind of constructive activities in which he himself was deeply involved during his life-time.

Activities

Briefly, the activities of the Foundation are:

- (a) Rural Development Work - It has undertaken various projects of rural development in selected villages of Wardha in Maharashtra.
- (b) Awards - It gives 3 Awards annually to individuals in India for outstanding contribution in the fields of constructive work, application of science and technology for rural development and development and welfare of women and children; and one International Award to individual holding a foreign passport and nationality for promoting Gandhian values outside India. Each of the Awards carries a Citation, a Trophy and a sum of Rs. 5 lakh or its equivalent in foreign currency.

Jammalal Bajaj Birth Centenary Award to Dr. Nelson Mandela

In commemoration of Jammalalji's Birth Centenary, the Foundation conferred the Special Birth Centenary Award on Dr. Nelson Mandela, the great African leader. The Award consisted of Rs. 5 Lakh in foreign exchange, a Citation and a specially sculptured trophy signifying Dr. Mandela's fight for freedom.

The Award was given at a special function held at Raj Bhawan, Calcutta, at the hands of the Governor of West Bengal, Prof. Nurul Hasan, on 18th October, 1990.

JAMNALAL BAJAJ AWARDS: PROCESS OF SELECTION

Process of selection

In addition to press advertisements, the Foundation sends letters every year to about 2500 to 3000 well known institutions and individuals working in the fields of Sarvodaya Movement, Gandhian Programme of Constructive Work, Appropriate Technology, Applied Agricultural Research, Gandhian Welfare and Child Welfare and/or Gandhian Constructive Work, inviting them to recommend individuals for the Awards. Such letters are also sent to Secretaries of the State/Union Government Departments of Social Welfare, Rural Development, Adivasi Welfare, etc., Vice-Chancellors of all Universities (including Agricultural Universities), eminent journalists, Members of Parliament and so on. Besides, an appeal is published in the leading dailies in India, inviting recommendations. Direct applications (self nominations) are not entertained.

The Chairmen of the respective Selection Committees assisted by the Hon. Director and Hon. Secretary of the Foundation screen all the nominations which are prima facie eligible for consideration and a shortlist of the nominees is drawn up for the consideration of the Selection Committees. Whenever necessary, personal visits are also made to assess the work of the nominees.

The Committees recommend a panel of three names for each Award for consideration by the Council of Advisers. The Council recommends one name from each panel to the Board of Trustees of the Jamnalal Bajaj Foundation which gives the final approval. Thereafter, the awardees are immediately informed about their selection.
